Purpose: To use food vocabulary from chapter 3A and 3B in context in a creative way, to use "gustar" and "encantar" in context, to integrate math skills into Spanish by converting dollars to pesos.

Create a tri-fold menu for your restaurant that serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Your menu must include COLOR* illustrations (or printed images / clip art)

-Front cover with the name of the restaurant (en español), with image(s), and a simple slogan.
-One section for breakfast items (with articles) with images for at least 3 items. Prices in Mexican pesos.
-One section for lunch items (with articles) with images for at least 3 items. Prices in Mexican pesos.
-One section for dinner items (with articles) with images for at least 3 items. Prices in Mexican pesos.
-One section for drink items (with articles) with images for at least 3 items. Prices in Mexican pesos.
-One section with at least 4 customer reviews about which foods they like/love, and DO NOT like. Use "gustar" at least twice and "encantar" at least twice (per review for a total minimum of 8 sentences), and use at least three different conjugations (me gusta, nos gusta, me encantan, le gusta, etc.)

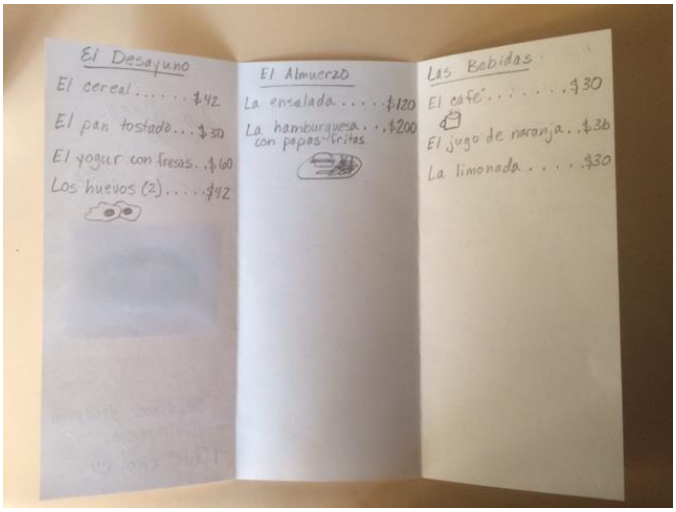
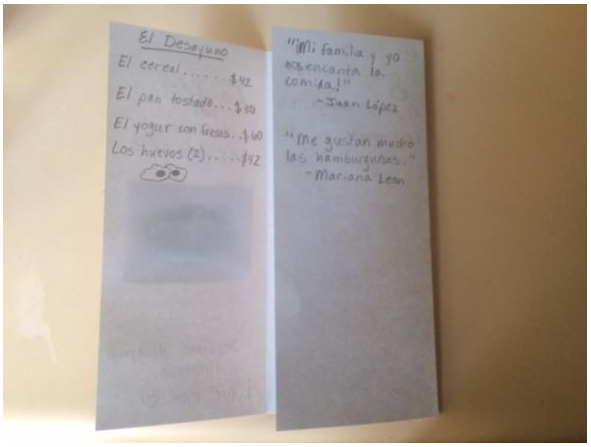
Here's what it looks like folded. You can "hand draw" or use "digital technology" to complete this project.



Here's what it looks like opened – this is NOT a finished product, but simply an example.



Put the reviews on the outside, opposite the cover.
